The process of creating a quilt, sewing a garment, or embroidering a seam is always a little bit magic.

Fabric and thread are transformed, through hard work and a creative vision, into a beautiful dress, an art quilt, or an embroidered sampler. This fall, our publishing line-up is full of books and products that celebrate that magic and the talented—one might say supernaturally talented—stars who show us how to create a little of that magic for ourselves.

This season we are featuring several talented makers: Jera Brandvig, Becky Goldsmith, Maxine Rosenthal, Angela Walters, Victoria Findlay Wolfe, Christina Cameli, and many more. Jera Brandvig shares the magic of the quilt as-you-go technique in Quilt As-You-Go Made Vintage, while Angela Walters teaches readers how to emulate her magical quilting touch with Free-Motion Meandering. Maxine Rosenthal teams up with Linda Bardes to share One-Block Wonders of the World, and Christina Cameli explores the many tricks of wedges in Wedge Quilt Workshop. Becky Goldsmith, Victoria Findlay Wolfe, and Barbara Cline even have “magic” in their titles: The Magical Unicorn Quilt, Modern Quilt Magic, and Magic Add-a-Strip Quilts, respectively!

With so much enchanting inspiration, and with detailed explanations and instructions that take readers “behind the curtain” to show them how to achieve the magic for themselves, these books are the perfect introductions and guides to a creative journey. All quilters and sewists can learn from these inventive stars—both those who are well-known, like the popular authors above, and those whose stars are on the rise, like debut authors Angie Wilson (Fussy Cutters Club), Maria Shell (Improv Patchwork), and Jeannette White and Erin Hamilton (Quilting Row by Row).

This season, bring a little magic to your life with books and products that inspire you to create.
