Harriet Hargrave is a world-renowned quilter, teacher, and best-selling author. She is responsible for myriad products pertaining to machine quilting, from batting to fabric. In 1981, she opened the hugely successful quilt shop, Harriet's Treadle Arts, in Denver, Colorado.

Carrie Hargrave-Jones has been surrounded by quilting all her life—sitting in her mother's lap while she sewed and spending days at Harriet's quilt shop. Carrie took over managing the shop in 2006. She lives in Denver, Colorado.
